Subject Code	AF4912
Subject Title	Capstone Project
Credit Value	6 credits
Level	4
Normal Duration	2-semesters
Pre-requisite/ Co-requisite/ Exclusion	Pre-requisite: AF2108 Financial Accounting and AF3313 Business Finance
Objectives	The role of this capstone project is to provide students an opportunity to demonstrate their capabilities in integrating all key knowledge, skills and learning experience accumulated in the entire undergraduate study. The purposes of this capstone project are to enhance students to apply and consolidate their generic competencies and professional knowledge learned by undertaking an investigation in the issues relating to accounting, finance and financial services. Basing on the learned research and investigation skills, students then analyze various key issues rigorously and present their findings logically and provide their critical discussion and feasible recommendations. It helps students to prepare for professional practice in the workplace, for further academic pursuits and for lifelong learning. This capstone project is also directed toward cultivating desired graduate attributes including critical thinking, problem solving abilities, creativity and innovation.
Intended Learning Outcomes	Upon completion of the subject, students will be able to: - Comprehend and communicate effectively in English in professional and day-to-day contexts; - Examine and critique the validity of information, arguments, and different viewpoints, and to reach sound judgments on the basis of credible evidence and logical reasoning; - Identify and define problems in both professional and day-to-day contexts, and produce innovative solutions to solve problems; - Demonstrate an understanding on the applications and implications of the latest technologies in practices in the professions; - Recognize the need for continual learning and self-improvement, and be able to plan, manage and evaluate their own learning in pursuit of self-determined goals (BBA Outcome 13 – Lifelong Learning); and - Have sufficient major-specific skills and knowledge to make an immediate contribution to the workplace, and to facilitate the process of continuous professional development.

Subject Synopsis/ Indicative Syllabus	In this capstone project, students demonstrate their competencies in conducting original and independent investigation of challenging issues in business management, organization and/or global business. There is a diversity of the contents and formats of the project. It can be an application of technology, innovation, and entrepreneurial concepts. It can be a study or investigation of management challenges in specific firms or industry so that students will provide creative and feasible solutions for the firms/institutions. It can be an academic research with underlying conceptual theories and rigorous research methodologies. It can also be a comprehensive study of relevant public policies or issues relating to accounting, finance and financial services so that students will provide critical analysis and discussion with concrete conclusions. Students are expected to determine their own project topic and proposal after consulting respective project supervisors. Projects would be conducted by GROUPS OF THREE STUDENTS.
Teaching/Learning Methodology	The capstone project is an independent study which is highly based on students' efforts in integrating what they have learned from various subjects in their undergraduate study. Students are expected to work independently. The lectures and workshops will help students to obtain a solid foundation of technology, innovation, entrepreneurship and/or methodology of investigation and research skills in issues relating to accounting, finance and financial services. Students, after consulting with project supervisors, will determine their project topic, proposal and schedule of work. They must follow their plan of work and report their progress. Students are required to submit interim reports and final reports as instructed by their supervisors.
