

Subject Code	AF5386
Subject Title	Family Office and Wealth Management
Credit Value	3
Level	5
Pre-requisite / Co-requisite/ Exclusion	Economics for Financial Analysis (AF5341) or equivalents including any ONE of the following subjects: Financial Management for Executives (AF5367), or Finance for Executives (AF5327), or Financial Management (AF5318).
Objectives	The objective of this course is to offer theoretical and practical training in financial planning and wealth management for High Net Worth Individuals (HNWIs) and family offices. It covers important concepts related to holistic family legacy and wealth management, and provides comprehensive knowledge for diverse challenges and opportunities in family office and family legacy. The course emphasis soft and hard skills, and strengthening both technical knowledge and interpersonal skills for a well-rounded expertise by real-world industry exposure. The students are expected to be well-prepared as eligible wealth managers after taking this course. It contributes to achieving the MoF Programme Outcomes by solving family office and wealth management problems as they present themselves in real-life situations. Students will learn the foundations of family office administration and governance, delve into the nuances of the family managing wealth, family relationships, and family legacy across generations, and explore the latest trends in establishing and developing family offices in Hong Kong. The program also touches upon the ethical and regulatory aspects of wealth management, ensuring that graduates are well-versed in the complex legal and ethical environment in which they will operate.
Intended Learning Outcomes	Upon completion of the subject, students will be able to: - Comprehend the concepts of Family Office and Wealth Management, and demonstrate a comprehensive understanding of the principles, structures, and functions of family offices, including their role in managing wealth for High Net Worth Individuals (HNWIs) and families. - Apply financial planning strategies for HNWIs and families, and develop and implement tailored financial planning strategies to address the unique needs including investment management, tax optimization, estate planning, and risk management. - Analyze family dynamics and legacy planning, and evaluate the impact of family relationships, generational transitions, and legacy planning on wealth management decisions, and propose solutions to mitigate conflicts and ensure long-term family harmony. - Navigate Governance and Administration in Family Offices - Understand various aspects of asset allocation strategies - Develop all-roundedness skills by integrating interpersonal skills, communication skills, and subject knowledge - Make investment policy statements for HNWIs and family office. - Explore Trends and Innovations in Family Offices, and Solve Real-World Family Office Challenges

Subject Synopsis/ Indicative Syllabus	Lecture 1: Introduction to Family Offices and Wealth Management Definition and evolution of family offices Types of family offices: single-family offices (SFOs), multi-family offices (MFOs), and virtual family offices Role of family offices in wealth management for HNWIs Overview of the global and Hong Kong family office landscape Lecture 2: The wealth management process The Client Relationship The Client Profile Wealth Management Investment Policy Portfolio Management, Monitoring, and Market Review Lecture 3: Family Dynamics and Legacy Planning Understanding family governance structures and family constitutions Managing intergenerational wealth transfer and succession planning Addressing family conflicts and communication challenges Building and preserving a family legacy: financial and non-financial aspects Lecture 4: Governance and Administration of Family Offices Designing effective governance frameworks for family offices Roles and responsibilities of family office executives and advisors Operational and administrative best practices Technology and digital tools for family office management Lecture 5: Investment Strategies for Family Offices Investment Theory Fundamentals Investments in the context of Financial Planning Performance measurement and reporting for family office investments Lecture 6: Asset Allocation Determinants of Portfolio Performance Value of Asset Allocation Decisions The Importance of Managing Asset Allocation
---	--

	The Alternative To A Managed Asset Allocation Policy Asset Allocation Implementation Strategies Lecture 7: Trends and Innovations in Family Offices Emerging trends in family office structures and services The role of technology and fintech in family office operations Family offices in Hong Kong: opportunities and challenges Globalization and cross-border wealth management considerations Lecture 8: Investment Policy Statement, Practical Applications and Case Studies Development of an Investment Policy Statement Real-world case studies on family office establishment and management Solving family office challenges and creating wealth management plans Lecture 9: Interpersonal and Professional Skills Development Communication and relationship management with HNWI and families Negotiation and conflict resolution skills Leadership and decision-making in family office settings Building a career in wealth management and family office advisory Lecture 10 & Lecture 11: Capstone Project Presentation and Course Review Capstone project: developing a comprehensive investment policy statement for family office or HNWI. Group presentation of the investment policy statement. Course review and reflection on key learnings Preparing for professional roles in family offices and wealth management Lecture 12 & Lecture 13: Presentations
Teaching/Learning Methodology	The course is comprised of a seminar of three hours per week, students' presentations, and Individual project. The 3-hour seminar per week includes a 2-hour lecture and 1-hour tutorial. Students are required to submit investment policy statement and make presentation in the class.

Assessment Methods in Alignment with Intended Learning Outcomes	Specific assessment methods/tasks	% weighting	Intended subject learning outcomes to be assessed (Please tick as appropriate)
			a	b	c	d	e-h
	1.Attendance and participation	5%		✓		✓	✓
	2.Quiz	15%	✓	✓	✓	✓	✓
	3. Individual Project	30%	✓	✓	✓	✓	✓
	4.Examination	50%	✓	✓	✓	✓	✓
	Total	100 %
Explanation of the appropriateness of the assessment methods in assessing the intended learning outcomes: An integrated approach of discussions, practice questions, tests, and group research project and presentation will be examined. Class meetings will be used to lecture and discussion on key topics and their applications. To maximize benefits, students are highly encouraged to take initiation in participating class discussions and sharing their views and experience. Application of concepts will be discussed and elaborated with the aid of case studies. Note: The specific requirements on individual assessment components discussed above could be adjusted based on the pedagogical needs of subject lecturers.
Student Study Effort Expected	Class contact:
	▪ Lectures/Seminars					39 Hrs.
	Other student study effort:
	▪ Self-study					78 Hrs.
	Total student study effort					117 Hrs.
Reading List and References	Required Textbook
	Woodson, W. I., & Marshall, E. V. (2021). The Family Office: A Comprehensive Guide for Advisers, Practitioners, and Students (1st ed.). Columbia University Press.
	Reference Book
	Rosplock, K., & ebrary, I. (2014). The complete family office handbook: a guide for affluent families and the advisors who serve them. John Wiley & Sons, Inc.							