

Subject Code	AF5503
Subject Title	Corporate Governance, Disclosures and Implications
Credit Value	3
Level	5
Normal Duration	One Semester
Pre-requisite / Co-requisite/ Exclusion	None
Objectives	This subject adopts the perspective of a compliance officer of a local listed company in addressing the issues of corporate governance practiced in Hong Kong. It contributes to the achievement of the Master of Corporate Finance Programme Outcome by enabling students to understand the regulatory framework of corporate governance and to identify business ethics issues in the context of compliance of the framework, to apply the concepts and principles of corporate governance to current corporate governance practices in the working environment, and to critically evaluate corporate governance systems of HK and PRC listed companies.
Intended Learning Outcomes	Upon completion of the subject, students will be able to: - identify and analyze business ethics issues pertaining to corporate governance framework; - interpret the corporate governance system and best practices of Hong Kong companies, especially the listed companies; - critically evaluate the effectiveness of the Hong Kong corporate governance systems in protecting the interests of the investing public, the members, the creditors and the other stakeholders of Hong Kong listed companies; - identify the features of and evaluate the corporate governance system of Hong Kong companies with reference to corporate governance systems of PRC and other jurisdictions.
Teaching/Learning Methodology	Lectures emphasize concepts and key principles of corporate governance with reference to the practical application in the workplace. Seminars provide students with a forum for discussion on the application of concepts to current corporate governance practices in their working environment. Students are required to present cases, problems or articles in seminars.
Assessment Methods in Alignment with Intended Learning Outcomes	Assessment components include class discussions, presentations, test and final examination.
