Subject Description Form

Please read the notes at the end of the table carefully before completing the form.

Subject Code	CLC1153P (2019-20 onward) CBS1153P (2018-19 and before)
Subject Title	Elementary Cantonese (Taught in Putonghua) 基礎廣東話（以普通話授課）
Credit Value	3
Level	1
Pre-requisite / Co-requisite/ Exclusion	For students whose native language is not Cantonese (i.e. exclude students whose native language is Cantonese) AND meet a certain standard in a pre-course assessment.
Objectives	This subject aims to help non-Cantonese speaking students to use Cantonese to communicate with people for daily life contacts in Hong Kong.
Intended Learning Outcomes (Note 1)	Upon completion of the subject, students will be able to: a. acquire the pronunciation, vocabulary, sentence structure, and some written characters of Cantonese, b. deal with daily life business in Hong Kong, c. to communicate with local students and people, d. achieve a wider and deeper understanding of the life of Hong Kong people and their cultural heritage.
Subject Synopsis/ Indicative Syllabus (Note 2)	The contents of the syllabus include two major parts: communicative situations and linguistic knowledge of Cantonese. These two domains go in parallel with each other. There are 10 communicative situations covering themes of interaction such as “Introducing each other”, “Having a phone call”, “Making an appointment”, “Asking where to go in the street”, “Shopping” and the like. After introducing the phonological systems of Cantonese, in each of the 10 communicative situations, there is a focal point of grammar or in expression. For example, in “Introducing each other”, the way of saying one’s name, and the position of using the adverb “先” in a sentence, will be the focal point of learning and teaching in linguistic terms.
Teaching/Learning Methodology (Note 3)	The course adopts an interactive way of learning/teaching where students will have a lot of chances to put knowledge into practice. In addition to classroom learning and exercises, group discussion, and role-play learning, there will be, outside classroom activities such as actual shopping in a market, buying tickets, film watching etc. Teacher consultations will also be part of the course.

Explanation of the appropriateness of the assessment methods in assessing the intended learning outcomes: The assessments focus on linguistic knowledge and communication skills in Cantonese. Evaluation includes: (1) A fundamental understanding of Cantonese vocabulary and grammar. (2) Proficiency in Cantonese listening, writing, reading, and speaking abilities. (3) The ability to speak Cantonese both individually and in group settings. Students may use GenAI in assessment unless they have been told otherwise before the assessment. The work submitted for assessment must be students’ own work. The submitted work may not be accepted for the purpose of assessment if its authenticity is questionable. Third-party materials (included AI-generated materials) used in the work must be properly referenced. Submitting third-party materials as their own work is an act of academic dishonesty and will lead to disciplinary actions. Departments and subject teachers have the discretion to request students to make an honour declaration for the authenticity of the work they submit for assessment.

Note 1: Intended Learning Outcomes

Intended learning outcomes should state what students should be able to do or attain upon completion of the subject. Subject outcomes are expected to contribute to the attainment of the overall programme outcomes.

Note 2: Subject Synopsis/ Indicative Syllabus

The syllabus should adequately address the intended learning outcomes. At the same time over-crowding of the syllabus should be avoided.

Note 3: Teaching/Learning Methodology

This section should include a brief description of the teaching and learning methods to be employed to facilitate learning, and a justification of how the methods are aligned with the intended learning outcomes of the subject.

Note 4: Assessment Method

This section should include the assessment method(s) to be used and its relative weighting, and indicate which of the subject intended learning outcomes that each method purports to assess. It should also provide a brief explanation of the appropriateness of the assessment methods in assessing the intended learning outcomes.
