Teaching/Learning Methodology (Note 3)	This is a service-learning subject that teaches Chinese and the schools in Hong Kong are using Cantonese or Putonghua in teaching Chinese. Interviews may be required to guarantee students' proficiency level of Chinese. 1. e-Learning Module The e-learning module is developed and delivered by the Office of Service Learning at PolyU, consisting of readings, exercises and assessments that are designed to introduce students to the basic concept and practice of service learning. Students are required to successfully complete the e-learning module within the first four weeks of the semester in which they are taking the subject. 2. Discipline-Specific Lectures, Tutorials, Seminars and/or Workshops These lectures, seminars, tutorials and/or workshops are designed and conducted by the subject offering department to equip students with the discipline-specific knowledge and skills required for planning and conducting the service-learning project. 3. Project-Specific Seminars, Tutorials and/or Workshops The project-specific seminars, tutorials and/or workshops are designed to: (a) develop students' understanding of the targeted clients, as well as other issues relating to the service-learning project, (b) provide training for students in generic skills in planning and delivering the service project. Experts and speakers from outside the subject-offering department (e.g. Service-Learning and Leadership Office, NGOs) will be invited to contribute to some of these sessions as appropriate. Where possible, a hands-on interactive format will be used. Students are required to attend all of the discipline-specific and project-specific lectures, seminars and workshops and successfully complete all of the required assignments/learning tasks prior to participation in the service-learning project.

4. Service-Learning Projects

The service-learning projects are designed to develop students' generic competencies of innovative problem-solving, teamwork and communication, and enhance students' sense of social awareness, responsibilities and engagement.

Students are required to:

- Visit and communicate with the designated NCS e.g. schools, community centers and NGOs to discuss details of the group projects;
- Design and deliver language arts activities in the form of any innovative solution included but not limited to creative writing workshops / performances / day camps / day tours / organized indoor or outdoor activities;
- Communicate effectively and work as a team. Every student is expected to take part in preparing the learning materials/activities, leading and delivering the language product/service.

The service project will take place in:

- The activities may take place during the day time, or in the evening, on weekdays / weekends/ public holidays, depending on the needs of the NCS;
- The teaching will normally be conducted in schools, community centers and NGOs;

5. Reflective Journals & Report and Review Sessions

Students will be required to write reflective journals and reports both during and after the service-learning project to demonstrate their ability to: (a) link their service learning experiences with the academic focus/discipline-specific content of the subject, (b) reflect on their service-learning experience to identify their learning gains as well as areas for future improvements, (c) reflect on their roles and social responsibilities.

To guide students in using reflection as a tool for learning, and to assess their ability in achieving the above learning objectives, reflection and review sessions will also be held both during and after the service-learning project. Experts and facilitators from outside the subject-offering department (e.g. Service-Learning and Leadership Office, NGOs) may be invited to contribute to some of these sessions as appropriate.

Note 1: Intended Learning Outcomes

Intended learning outcomes should state what students should be able to do or attain upon completion of the subject. Subject outcomes are expected to contribute to the attainment of the overall programme outcomes.

Note 2: Subject Synopsis/ Indicative Syllabus

The syllabus should adequately address the intended learning outcomes. At the same time over-crowding of the syllabus should be avoided.

Note 3: Teaching/Learning Methodology

This section should include a brief description of the teaching and learning methods to be employed to facilitate learning, and a justification of how the methods are aligned with the intended learning outcomes of the subject.

Note 4: Assessment Method

This section should include the assessment method(s) to be used and its relative weighting, and indicate which of the subject intended learning outcomes that each method purports to assess. It should also provide a brief explanation of the appropriateness of the assessment methods in assessing the intended learning outcomes.
