

Subject Description Form

Subject Code	ITC557
Subject Title	International Business in Fashion Industry
Credit Value	3
Level	5
Pre-requisite / Co-requisite/ Exclusion	Nil
Objectives	This course provides students with a comprehensive understanding of international business in fashion industry and helps them to develop the analytical skills needed to determine and examine the strategies and structure of the international market place.
Intended Learning Outcomes	Upon completion of the subject, students will be able to: 1. Evaluate and explain the role of global trade regulations, policies and other forces in the competitiveness of multi-national fashion companies. 2. Describe and assess the various business factors for globalization of fashion business. 3. Integrate the various theories and regimes to international trade in textiles and fashion. 4. Understand and explain the various financial and other factors which impact on the competitiveness of international fashion businesses
Subject Synopsis/ Indicative Syllabus	1. General Environment and Trade Pattern The global environmental forces affecting the international textile and clothing trading; trade pattern and intra-industry trade; the economic significance of global textile and clothing trade; trade theories and definitions; statutory trading bodies and policy organization; the World Trade Organization (WTO). 2. Trade Protectionism Protectionism sentiments in world textile and clothing trade; voluntary export restraint and control systems; tariff and non-tariff barriers; certificate of origin; anti-dumping issues. 3. Globalisation of Fashion Business Internationalization of clothing business; licensing, franchising and sub-contraction; outward processing arrangement (OPA); multi-national corporations and foreign direct investment of textile and clothing joint ventures and wholly-owned setups; strategic alliances; evaluation of investing host countries; potential markets for fashion business.

	4. Operation of International Enterprise Control mechanisms and problems of foreign subsidiaries; host government investment regulations; humanitarian policies and worker rights compliance issues; financial management and exchange rate issues. 5. Global Market Competition Quick response requirements; changing buyers' behaviour and regional purchase practices; eco-regulations of importing countries; transshipment problems; the competitive edge of Hong Kong and China as emerging powers in the global fashion market.
Teaching/Learning Methodology	Lectures will be used to deliver theories, concepts and facts. Case examples and readings, both international, China and Hong Kong based, will be used in class seminars to demonstrate the applicability of various techniques and theories. In tutorials, problems will be discussed from an analytical approach. Guest speakers, experienced in the areas of relevance will be invited to discuss their experiences.
Assessment Methods in Alignment with Intended Learning Outcomes	<table border="1"> <thead> <tr> <th rowspan="2">Specific assessment methods/tasks</th><th rowspan="2">% weighting</th><th colspan="4">Intended subject learning outcomes to be assessed</th></tr> <tr> <th>1</th><th>2</th><th>3</th><th>4</th></tr> </thead> <tbody> <tr> <td>1. Coursework</td><td>50%</td><td></td><td>✓</td><td>✓</td><td>✓</td></tr> <tr> <td>2. Examination</td><td>50%</td><td>✓</td><td>✓</td><td>✓</td><td>✓</td></tr> <tr> <td>Total</td><td>100%</td><td colspan="4"></td></tr> </tbody> </table> Coursework: It includes reporting writing and oral presentation enables to familiarize students with basic concepts, mechanisms, and processes of international trade and business in fashion and textile sectors. It also helps students to develop better understanding of the gains of bilateral and multilateral trade in the era of Globalization and the new rules governing the WTO. Final Exam: Students are asked to answer essay-type questions about the concepts of and theories of international business and trade. Students are asked to critique a specific topic in international textile and fashion business sectors.					Specific assessment methods/tasks	% weighting	Intended subject learning outcomes to be assessed				1	2	3	4	1. Coursework	50%		✓	✓	✓	2. Examination	50%	✓	✓	✓	✓	Total	100%
Specific assessment methods/tasks	% weighting	Intended subject learning outcomes to be assessed
		1	2	3	4
1. Coursework	50%		✓	✓	✓
2. Examination	50%	✓	✓	✓	✓
Total	100%
Student Study Effort Expected	Class contact:
	▪ Lectures		39 Hrs.
	Other student study effort:
	▪ Student Self-Study		36 Hrs.
	▪ Coursework		30 Hrs.
	Total student study effort		105 Hrs.

Reading List and References	Indicative Reading List and References: 1. Appleyard, D.R. and Field Jr., A.J. International Economics, 7th edition, McGraw Hill, 2010. 2. Dickerson, K.G., Inside the Fashion Business, Prentice Hall, 2003. 1. Dickerson, K.G., Textiles and Apparel in the Global Economy, 3rd Merrill, New Jersey, 1999. 2. Singleton, J., The World Textile Industry, Routledge, London, 1997. 3. Developments in the Textiles and Clothing Trade; Impact of Quota Elimination from 2005, Research Development, Trade Development Council, January 2005. 4. From Pearl to Yangtze: Foreign Investment, Strategy and Hong Kong's Role, Research Department, Trade Development Council, March 2004. 5. Barfield, Claude E., Free Trade, sovereignty, democracy: the Future of the World Trade Organization, Washington, D.C. American Enterprise Institute, 2007. Journals ATA Journal (Journal for Asia on Textile & Apparel) Textile Asia Textile Outlook International Textiles (Quarterly Journal of the Textile Institute)
------------------------------------	--