

Subject Description Form

Subject Code	ITC3029D
Subject Title	Fashion History
Credit Value	3
Level	3
Pre-requisite / Co-requisite/ Exclusion	ITC2001D Design Studies
Objectives	The subject introduces the development of historical fashion dress and its relationship to the development of contemporary fashion. It provides students with an understanding of the social, cultural, economic, political and environmental and global context that underpins the development of historical fashion trends. Apart from the group study project, students will be expected to produce individual piece for work responses to their research and expand understanding of the relationship between their main study area and the wider fashion industry. In additional they are encouraged to use tools such as Gen Ai to assist in their story telling part.
Intended Learning Outcomes	Upon completion of the subject, students will be able to: a. conduct independent research and analysis using a wide range of resources and reference materials, both historical and contemporary; b. engage in critical thinking, evaluation, analysis and high-level problem solving; c. demonstrate an understanding of the influences of history, arts, socio- cultural, economic and other factors on contemporary fashion; d. communicate effectively using academic conventions and referencing systems. e. explore and develop an analytical approach through academic and visual research to explore and develop their individual strengths and approaches to their design practice.

Subject Synopsis/ Indicative Syllabus	Research skills for fashion design sources interpretation and analysis • (I) Chronology of fashion from ancient to modern times with examples of adaptations and modifications for directional fashion. • (II) Theories of fashion – personal adornment, communication, consumption, differentiation, identity, fetishism and seduction. • (III) Subcultures – The swinging sixties and 70s punk subculture and counterculture. • (IV) Key movements in 20th century art and design and their influence on fashion: surrealism, modernism, postmodernism, art nouveau, Art Deco, pop art etc. • (V) Key moments in fashion history: the cultural, social and political influences that led to major shifts in fashion trends including WW1, WW11 and the New Look, Victorian and Edwardian fashion, Haute Couture (Charles Frederick Worth), Baroque and decorative art. • (VI) Hierarchy and symbolic meaning of garments and religious affiliations. • (VII) Ancient Egyptian and Chinese Fashion.
Teaching/Learning Methodology	With reference to the highly visual nature of the subject, lecture materials with full illustrations will be supplied both in class and via LEARN@PolyU to ensure contextualized understanding of historic elements contributing to the fashion system today. Seminars will be student-centred, with in-class activities that enable learning via group effort and team presentations, in line with the assessments indicated below.

Assessment Methods in Alignment with Intended Learning Outcomes	Specific assessment methods/tasks	% weighting	Intended subject learning outcomes to be assessed (Please tick as appropriate)
			a	b	c	d
	Continuous assessment	100%
	1. Group Project and Presentations	60%	✓	✓	✓
	2. Individual illustrated reports	40%	✓	✓	✓	✓
	Total	100%
	Explanation of the appropriateness of the assessment methods in assessing the intended learning outcomes: The group project will assist the students to develop their skills in research, analysis, teamwork, presentation and their ability to use a wide range of references and other materials to underpin their outcomes. The individual report will enable them to engage in critical thinking, to study independently, to convey their ideas effectively, and to solve complex problems. It will examine their ability to use academic writing styles and associated conventions.
Student Study Effort Expected	Class contact:
	▪ Lectures		26 Hrs.
	▪ Seminars		12 Hrs.
	Other student study effort:
	▪ Assignments / Project		67 Hrs
	▪ Self study		36 Hrs
	Total student study effort		141 Hrs

Reading List and References	Books Jobling, Paul., Nesbitt, Philippa., Wong, Angelene. Fashion, Identity, Image, London: Bloomsbury Publishing, 2022. Mackinney-Valentin, Maria. Fashioning Identity: Status Ambivalence in Contemporary Fashion, London: Bloomsbury Publishing, 2017. Jansen, M. Angela (ed)., Craik, Jennifer (ed)., Eicher, Joanne B. Modern Fashion Traditions: Negotiating Tradition and Modernity Through Fashion, London: Bloomsbury Academic, 2016. Barnard, M. (2007), Fashion theory: A reader (Routledge student readers). Routledge, London. Clancy, D. (1996), Costume since 1945: Couture, street style, and anti-fashion. Herbert, London. Davis, F. (1992), Fashion, culture and identity. The University of Chicago Press, Chicago & London. Rothstein, N. (2010), Four hundred years of fashion, 2nd Ed, Victoria; Albert Museum, London. Stevenson, N. J. (2011), The Chronology of Fashion, From Empire dress to ethical design. Ivy Press. Magazines and Online Resources Acne Paper www.acnepaper.com Dazed & Confused dazeddigital.com/ I.D online Showstudio Vogue.com WGSN http://oneresearch.lib.polyu.edu.hk/HKPU:All:HKPU_MILLENNIUM.b2404376 x Berg Fashion Library https://www.bloomsburyfashioncentral.com/
---	--