	Students are allowed to use Generative AI tools for the development of the assessment, including earlier stage research, visual study, inspiration seeking, creative thinking, concept development, etc., in which students are required to have proper declaration and clear elaboration on the level of GenAI in their work. Submitting GenAI-generated materials as students' own work or part of their work without declaration and elaboration is an act of academic dishonesty. Students who are found committing academic dishonesty will face disciplinary actions.
